

Written Assignment Stage 1, Suggested Format

See Assignment Submit Page and Case Description Packet for more information

1. Introduction and motivation of the project (500 words)

Choice of topic and framing in terms of values and needs

Objectives and definitions of key terms

Specification of the intended context/ limitation of scope

Introduction of tools, methods, frameworks, or concepts to be used, with references

2. Initial results (1000 words)

Description and results of a preliminary literature search

Formulation of a strategy for the design

Specification of initial requirements and constraints

Anticipated function/ purpose of the tool

Projected end users and stakeholders and value of the tool for them

3. Discussion (500 words)

Ethical issues anticipated and connected to ethical frameworks and concepts

Design barriers and challenges anticipated

4. References

Appendix I: Documentation of process

Description of meetings, research activities, and writing activities up to this point

Suggestion: Github or a Zip File

Appendix II: Project planning

Schedule of work activities, meetings, and deliverables to be carried out (a simple table or Gantt chart is fine)